

HANOHANO HAWAI'I KUAULI

CELEBRATING COLLABORATION AND WISDOM
ACROSS HAWAI'I'S ECOSYSTEMS

23RD ANNUAL HAWAI'I CONSERVATION CONFERENCE

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 5, 2015 // FREE COMMUNITY EVENT

8:00AM - 7:30PM → UNIVERSITY OF HAWAI'I AT HILO

Explore the work of HCA partners, conservation organizations and market vendors related to environmental programs, services, art and locally produced goods.

3:30 - 5:30pm → Public Conference Sessions featuring presentations on community based resource management, invasive species control, environmental education opportunities, and much more.

6:00 - 8:00pm → Live music by Paula Fuga and Kainani Kahaunaele sharing powerful mele of aloha 'āina. // Library Lānai

6:45pm → Special appearance by Nainoa Thompson, renowned navigator and President of the Polynesian Voyaging Society. // Library Lānai

5:30 - 7:30pm → HCC Poster Reception // Learn about exciting programs, projects and advances in conservation through discussion with project authors. Pupus and a no-host bar. // UHH Cafeteria

5:30-7:30pm → MIXed Plate: A Collaboration of Chefs. A Bounty of Ingredients. A Taste of Conservation // Join Chef Mark "Gooch" Noguchi, Chef Sheldon Simeon, and their favorite chef buddies as they celebrate the diverse ingredients our islands have to offer. These chefs will abandon their individual kitchens and cook side by side to explore the world of conservation through food. Serving up a MIXed Plate just for you! // UHH Campus Center 2nd Floor

HAWAI'I
CONSERVATION
ALLIANCE

Hawai'i Conservation Alliance
FOUNDATION

UNIVERSITY of HAWAI'I®
HILO