Conference Tips & Advice for Students & Emerging Professionals

- Take a look at the Conference Schedule and figure out sessions you want to attend
- Look for speaker names, the key people in the conservation community. Introduce yourself to these speakers via their Virtual Business Card or Virtual Lounge. Even though it's intimidating, speakers expect this. It's an opportunity to network and make crucial connections.
- Visit the Virtual Exhibit Hall and explore the different opportunities and organizations featured
- Visit Conservation Connections & Conservation Career Compass. Find jobs, internships, community events, academic programs, scholarships, advice from current professionals, and volunteering opportunities across the state of Hawai'i!
